AMBASSADOR HALTS NOT ON ORDER TO GO

ONE HOUR AFTER RECEIPT OF
NOTE FROM MADRID, MIN-ISTER IS ON THE MOVE.

By Associated Press.
ROME, August 2.—One hour after the printing of the note of Premier Canalejas to the vatican officially announcing Marquis De Ojeda had been called to Madrid by a communication "from his government," the Spanish ambassador to the vatican left Rome.

As yet no retaliatory measures have been taken by the church and Monsignor Vico will remain in Madrid as papal nuncio until the formal notice of Spanish action is served on Mgr. Merry del Val, papal secretary of state.

The statement issued by Canalejas bearing on the controversy between the church and state has been carefully perused by vatican officials. They assert that that part of the statement in which he declared the Holy See intended to concede to the Spanish government less than what was agreed to in 1904 is without foundation in fact.

It's Canalejas, they declare, who now wants greater concessions than those of 1904, on the plea that they were granted to the then premier, Maura, and that Canalejas believed them at that time insufficient.

Following the meeting the regular banquet was served in the banquet room of the lodge.

Nation's Chief Executive Will Not Dismiss Secretary of the Interior and Matter is Proving Embarrassing.

By Associated Press.
BEVERLY, Mass., August 2.—There was increasing evidence here today that the recent bombardment of the president from Republican leaders from all parts of the country protesting that Secretary Ballinger was proving an embarrassment in laying plans for the coming congressional campaign, is beginning to have an effect, if not upon the president himself, at least upon the advisers who are closest to him.

No attempt was made today to deny the reports that Senator Crane at the outset of his political pilgrimage to the west had probably suggested to Ballinger at Minneapolis yesterday that his duty to his party might require that he sacrifice his place in the cabinet. All Secretary Norton would say, after considering the matter, was that

He said the matter discussed was not even of direct interest to him. He denounced his foes in strong language and said he intended to ignore them entirely. His denial was issued after reading dispatches from Beverly, which indicated that Crane's mission to the west was to carry a hint that Ballinger would aid the party in the forthcoming elections by withdrawing at this time.

The maddened horse plunged and dashed along, but for a quarter of a mile the plucky young woman raced along never releasing her grip on the reins, and finally turned the four horses so that they were stopped.—Enterprise.
